Gaffers' Thoughts

A word from joint manager, Carl Taylor ahead of todays fixture..

Firstly, I'd like to welcome the players, management, staff and supporters of Litherland Remyca to the Emplas Commercial North Stadium for today's fixture. I hope everyone travelling with the visitors has a safe journey and enjoys their afternoon with us.

We come into today's game on the back of two consecutive victories and, equally importantly, two clean sheets. It's been a positive couple of weeks for us, and the performances have shown the importance of hard work, organisation and everyone doing their job for the team.

A few players have left the club this week, including Paul Riley, who has moved to Flixton, and Rob Flynn, who has been with the club for nearly seven years. We thank them both for their efforts and wish them all the best for the future. Besides that, competition for places remains strong, with everyone in the squad pushing each other and working hard to be involved.

As a management group, we always talk about building consistency. Winning games is obviously important, but the manner in which we go about our work matters just as much. Keeping two clean sheets demonstrates the collective effort and discipline we want to see from the group, from the front players leading the press right through to the defenders and goalkeeper at the back.

However, football has a habit of quickly reminding you that you cannot stand still. The challenge now is to build on those results rather than simply look back on them. We need to approach today with the same hunger, desire and commitment that have helped us achieve our recent successes.

Litherland Remyca will arrive with their own ambitions, and we know we will have to be ready for a competitive game. We must respect our opponents, be brave in possession, work hard without the ball and make sure we match their effort in every area of the pitch.

One thing we continually emphasise to the players is that standards cannot change depending on results. Whether we are winning, drawing or losing, the expectations remain the same. We want to see a group that works for one another, takes responsibility and represents this football club with pride.

Finally, I'd like to thank our supporters for continuing to get behind us. Your support makes a real difference to the players, particularly at home, and we hope we can give you another performance and result to be proud of this afternoon.

Enjoy the game, #UpTheChad
