Borough Green Juniors Football Club and all club officials fully support The FA Respect Programme.

Managers & Coaches (referred to only as Coaches onwards within this document) have a hugely important role to play in Respect, as they are not only responsible for their own behaviour, but they can also influence that of their players and spectators, too. On a match day, you'll be expected to work with your players, parents and other spectators to allow the referee to manage the game without being subjected to abuse.

The league you play in adopts the Respect programme and you will be asked to read, agree to, and sign, a Code of Conduct at your club. This will be your 'promise' to abide by a set of rules governing your behaviour as a coach. Working together with your players, your captain, and each referee that takes charge of your games during the season, you can play a major role in improving the game for everyone, through Respect.

Set out below is The FA Coaches Code of Conduct which forms the benchmark for all involved in coaching.

- Coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of each and every person and treat each equally within the context of the sport
- Coaches must place the well-being and safety of each player above all other considerations, including the development of performance
- Coaches must adhere to all guidelines laid down by governing bodies
- Coaches must have the qualifications laid down by governing bodies & if these are not in place must be achieved within 6 months of joining the club
- Coaches must have the minimum coaching level as set out by the club & if no coaching qualification is held then this will be achieved within 6 months of joining the club
- Coaches must follow The FA, Kent FA & League guidelines. Attending meetings where applicable, courses and match day reports. Any fines picked up for not undertaking these roles will be chargeable to the responsible coach
- Coaches must develop an appropriate working relationship with each player based on mutual trust and respect Coaches must not exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward
- Coaches must encourage and guide players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance
