Skippers' Thoughts

A word from club captain Luke Barlow ahead of today's fixture.

Another tough game ahead for us, I think I'll find myself saying that near enough every week when you look at the league this season. There's a lot of strong sides and teams will take points off each other throughout the season.

Nelson are a good side, I know a few of the lads there playing with them previously and also came up against them in the vase last season. They will be direct and well organised so we will need to be at our best and avoid playing into their hands.

For us I think it was a feeling of frustration around the place after last weekend's game against Witton. Overall I think it was a decent performance, particularly in the second half where we had several chances to go ahead. I felt we were good value for it however if you don't take those chances you will get punished. We've had a strong start in the league so it's important we build on that with another home win!
