Skippers' Thoughts

A word from club captain Luke Barlow ahead of today's fixture, against his former club.

Back at home for the first time in a while, another tough test for us but one that we're looking to bounce back in after the disappointment of last weekend.

It came out of nowhere really, I think we were full of confidence going into it after 3 good results on the spin. However we never really got going, that being said we got ourselves in leading positions twice so it was poor that we didn't come away with anything especially with the their goals being avoidable on our part.

It's been a long week waiting for the next game to come around but it's one that we're looking forward to and ready to go. We need to put a good run together now to keep pace at the top of the table so hopefully that starts on Saturday.

For me personally it's one that I'm excited for, it'll be good to catch up with some familiar faces. It's a great club Rammy and I had a brilliant couple of years there over the last two seasons. They probably haven't started as they would have liked, however I know they've got good players and a top manager in Rob so we will need to be right at it from the off and take the game to them if we want to get something out of it.
