GET TO KNOW

ROB FLYNN

We caught up with Chad Legend Rob Flynn to discuss the end of the season and his hopes going into our final league game.

A WORD WITH ROB

Fullback-come-Wingback Rob is a mainstay in Carl & Bens squad, an important member of our squad over the last few seasons.

As we prepare for our final league fixture, we asked Rob to reflect on the season so far...

"This season has been mad if I'm honest, some unreal moments and some very low moments. The run that we went on as a team beating some very good sides I couldn't see anyone stopping us, but football is a mad game things can change very quickly like they have that's why we are where we are fighting to get a play off spot.."

And his thoughts ahead of today's huge fixture...

"Saturday is the biggest game yet, coming up against a very good side in Stockport who play some very good stuff. We have to be on our A game or our season will be over. All the lads know what's needed to beat them it can't come quick enough for me"

Introducing Paul Riley.

Carl & Ben brought 29-year old Centrak Defender Paul into the squad, to bolster our defensive ranks ahead of the close-season playoff push. We caught up with him to find out how he is settling in to life as a Chadderton FC player.

Paul brings with him a wealth of experience, having previously featured for Macclesfield Town, Mossley, had two successful league winning seasons at Wythenshawe and most recently West Didsbury & Chorlton Football Club.

Can you tell us about your preferred positions and style of play?

“Like to think I’m quite quick, always felt confident in a sweeping role reading the game, dealing with one-on-one situations & playing comfortably out the back & distributing the ball.”

How have you settled in at Chadderton and what’s your thoughts on today’s game?

“On the pitch so far hasn’t been the start anyone wanted in the last few games. Made it hard for ourselves but I’m sure with the quality we have we can end the season strongly. Luckily I knew a lot of the lads already before coming in so that’s helped with settling in. The facilities are top and looking forward to being part of it all.

I’d be confident against any team in the play offs home or away, there are some strong teams in there this year but it’s one game at a time and anyone on the day can snatch it, it’s just whoever wants it more.

View from the dugout

The latest from First-team
Joint-Manager Ben Greenidge.

“Today sees us enter our last game of the season! So much football has been played, some fantastic highs and equally frustrating lows along the way. The goal at the start of the season was to reach the playoffs, after missing out on goal difference in our previous two attempts. A win here today in front of our home fans guarantees we achieve that goal.

The last couple of weeks have been tough from a results perspective, losing three games, all of them by a one goal deficit.”

View from the dugout

“Arguably we should have won all three, the performances were not at the levels of earlier in the season, but they definitely warranted some points on the board. But this is football, and a zero point return from those three games leaves us here, with one game left at home today against Stockport Town.

We’re hoping the place is packed today and the fans get right behind us and push us over the line!
Being back home this season after spending the whole of last season at our neighbours Avro, has really brought to light the support we have. All season home and away our loyal fans have been superb, they have shared our highs and lows, and they’ll be nothing more satisfying than to get the 3 points for them today!

Thank you for your support!!”

Skippers' Thoughts

A word from club captain Jacob Ngoy ahead of today's fixture.

"This has been a rollercoaster of a season - we have had our bad patches where we have struggled to win games and also went fourteen games unbeaten - this shows what we are capable of.

Our aim at the start of the season was the playoffs and we are so close to that - as we aim for a win against a tough Stockport Town side" It will not be easy but we are all looking forward to the challenge.

I would also like to take the opportunity to say a huge thankyou to our supporters who have followed us all season - your support goes a long way"

Today's Opponents Stockport Town FC

Football has been played at the site of Woodley Sports Village for many years including the previous teams of Woodley Sports and Stockport Sports. Both have now ceased to be and the site was redeveloped in 2012 into the modern sports facility you see today. Stockport Town FC began in February 2014 and developed a first-team squad in preparation for the 2014/15 season. The club, led by manager Calum Sykes, proceeded through a campaign of friendly fixtures and the club's first ever non-competitive match at Stockport Sports Village (SSV) came against Stalybridge Celtic in July 2014 although they lost 5-0. The first season included 35 games against various first and reserve teams with 17 wins. In 2015 Town were accepted into the North West Counties Division 1. The first league game at SSV was a 2-2 draw with Widnes FC in front of a crowd of 78. In their first competitive season they achieved an excellent 4th place finish with 63 points. In the following 2016-7 season in December, Town suffered a mauling and their record defeat of 0-10 to AFC Liverpool. Calum Sykes moved on to pastures new at New Mills and was replaced by Dave Wild. Fortunes turned around as they then lost only 4 of the 18 games he was in charge, finishing in 10th with 64 points and scoring 92 goals. The 2017-8 season was similar in many respects, finishing 10th again, on 53 points, but with another heavy defeat (8-1) away at Prestwich Heys and another change of manager in March with Dave Wild and staff joining Mossley. Jake Davies and Tom Upton took charge for 11 games before Alan Lord was named as manager for the next season, with the two of them in support. The 2018-9 season saw the North West Counties League expanded and Division One was divided into North and South. Town were allocated to Division One South and as it happens, yet again, they finished mid table in 10th with 53 points! 10th place was clearly becoming something of a habit now, finishing in that position on 37 points after just 29 games of the 2019-2020 season as it fizzled out, truncated by Covid, although Town did rack up a great 8-2 record (home) win against Maine Road along the way.

Today's Opponents Stockport Town FC

More managerial and ownership changes were afoot just before the season trickled to that early finish. Robbie Savage joined the club in the November with the object of helping young players who had been released by other clubs to get back into the game. In December 2019 Carlos Roca took over as Chairman and oversaw the season's premature end and (yet again!) 10th place finish.

Football began to get going again in the 2020-21 season, albeit somewhat chaotically due to various COVID restrictions. Robbie Savage departed for Macclesfield Town in the October and Town finished a theoretical 4th having played 8, won 4 and on 14 points. It is worth saying at this point that through Town's first half dozen season's crowds had been modest (generally double-digit figures), changes were coming. In July 2021 Stockport County owner Mark Stott acquired a controlling interest and appointed Matt Jensen as manager, cementing a 2018 agreement between the clubs to share management and coaching knowhow, also signing County legend Paul Turnbull from Curzon Ashton. Mid-season Paul replaced Matt Jensen as player manager with Mike Jeffries as his assistant.

Experienced players Tom Morris, Scott Maguire and Sam Hare also joined the squad from 1874 Northwich. Town finished in about their customary mid-table position of 11th on 48 points. The 2022-23 season saw the arrival of James Vincent bringing considerable experience of Scottish topflight football – a 3rd place Premier League finish and two cup finals including scoring the winner against Falkirk in the 2015 Cup Final! Things improved on the pitch seeing Town finish 2nd on 92 points, one short of the champions Wythenshawe. Town lost in the play off semi-final to Cheadle Town 2-0 thanks to very late 83rd and 97th minute goals from the visitors. The 2023-24 season saw Town compete for the first time in the two FA competitions, Cup and Vase, losing in the Cup Extra Preliminary Round 1-0 at home to Ramsbottom Utd and away at Maltby Main 3-1 in the Vase. The league that season was dominated by runaway leaders Brocton, but Town finished 2nd and were in the play-offs yet again. By now home crowds were routinely in the mid 200s.

Today's Opponents Stockport Town FC

After a nail-biting victory over Droylsden in the semi-final, there was heartbreak in losing to Abbey Hey on penalties but in front of a record crowd of 904. Promotion however was still secured unusually by virtue of some league re-organisation liberating another place which was awarded on the basis of points per game. Some notable players left at the end of the 2023-24 season, including top scorer Dan McLaughlin but with many new signings made over the summer and the retention of other key players Town look ahead to the new season with confidence. Town have worked hard to make a family-friendly, inclusive club and a good loyal supporter base has emerged from humble beginnings, earning praise for fairplay awards and even from ground-hopping fans giving it 10/10 for its (Gt North Pie Co) pies and pints! The club is pleased to support local charities including Widowed and Young for which there is an annual fund-raising match. One of the red and black flags displayed at games has the slogan "one man and his dog" – a reference to the modest crowds of the early days, that is no longer the case thankfully!
