WELCOME TO THE NEST

It is a warm welcome to Teddinton H.C. and their supporters, for their visit to the Nest today. We are also pleased to welcome today's umpires, Nikki Butcher, Dan Carter, together with match official Yvonne McCartney. We thank you for giving up your time today.

Last Saturday's game against a Holcombe side that are hot favourites to make a swift return to the Premier league, was not as one sided as the scoreline might suggest. There was no doubt that the best team on the day deserved the win as the visitors moved the ball about the pitch quickly over long distances and with great accuracy. Such skills showcased the quality you would expect from a team with so much top flight experience.

With 6 new faces in the squad ,it will take time for Magpies to gel but there were definitely some promising signs that the team is heading in the right direction. To their credit Magpies, never gave up, continually probing the Holcombe 23 in an attempt to get back into the game. Although the result wasn't what Magpies were hoping for to start the season, the team was still very positive at the end.

Magpies will be looking forward to another home game this weekend against newly promoted Teddington, although they will certainly not be under estimating their opponents. Magpies have two enforced changes to last week's squad with Laura Groves and Sarah Brook at weddings, so Oli Williams and Issy Wolfe will return to the squad. They will be hoping that new recruit Beth Cordukes builds on her goal scoring debut. Likewise, we will be looking to win plenty of short corners with Jess Howland striking the ball like a bullet after netting last week .

Come 4-00pm on Saturday, Magpies will be hoping they have 3 points to show for all the hard work and effort they have put into pre season training.

There is a tremendous amount of hard work that goes on behind the scenes to provide the excellent facilities and playing opportunities here at Magpies. Countless hours are spent by members,supporters of the club and the whole squad offer thanks to these volunteers for their efforts throughout the season.
