Mid-Somerset 2nd XI6*Chard 2nd XI*2

Mid-Somerset's seconds signed off for the season with their most emphatic win of the winter – a 6-2 victory over a Chard team who Mids will be playing in league competition next season.

The game was effectively over in the first 20 minutes as Mids raced into a four-goal lead.

Terry Petherbridge opened the scoring and then Dan Durston scored a brace with two well-struck shots from the back of the circle.

Skipper Jon Sawyer scored the fourth with an easy tap in opportunity as Mids recorded their best goal tally of the season.

An unnecessary illegal tackle on Petherbridge gave Mids a penalty stroke which Sawyer converted. Then Petherbridge scored his second to give Mids an emphatic half-time lead.

Mids were unable to match their first half performance and, despite having most of the game, were unable to add to their goal tally.

Chard's teenage left-winger scored the only goal of the half to add to the one he scored in the first half, but Mids emerged as confident winners.

Mid-Somerset 3rd XI1*Bridport Hawks 2nd XI*2

Mid-Somerset third XI were also playing their final game of the season.

It was a rearranged league game that was originally cancelled due to foot and mouth. As the result had a bearing on the final promotion positions – Bridport Hawks having a chance of promotion if they won the game – the league requested that the game be played.]

This was another game of two halves. Mids dominated the first and were worth the one-goal lead with a first half strike from Simon Lord. But they lost the plot in the second half and allowed the Hawks to score twice and win the game by the odd goal.
